

Alex's Diary

By the time you read this I'll have been to Brownie Camp. At the moment I'm just very, very excited about going!

I've not slept away from home before without Mummy or Daddy. Even when I had to stay in hospital, Mummy stopped with me. "What about staying with Grandma and Grandad?", I hear you ask. Well, that doesn't really count.

Anyway, we go on the Friday after school and return on Sunday. Grandad asked me what I was taking with me (he was probably thinking about when brother Ole and I go to stay with Grandma and Grandad for a few days, and Grandad thinks we take enough for a month!)

But even Grandad was surprised when I said that I was taking 5 (yes 5) pairs of shoes:

- wellies
- outdoor shoes
- indoor shoes
- slippers
- and, of course, party shoes

I told Grandad that it's a girl thing!

Bye for now,

Alex
